THE LESTER REIFF CASE.

It is noticeable that the American turfmen who were in England when the Jockey Club ruled Lester Reiff off for the alleged pulling of De Lacy at the Manchester meeting are to a man, of the opinion that the ruling was unjust. John Huggins, Edward Corrigan, Captain Thomas B. Merry, all men of great experience and keen judgment, believe the jockey innocent of wrongdoing and their opinions must carry great weight. The two Reiffs landed in New York Saturday a week ago and concerning them and Lester's case the Sun published the following:

"Among the passengers on the Cunard liner Lucania, which arrived here yesterday, were the noted American jockeys, Lester and Johnny Reiff. After landing, the boys immediately went to the Hoffman House where they registered and incidentally met a large number of turfmen who were anxious to see them. The fact that Lester Reiff had been ruled off the turf by the English Jockey Club stewards for his ride on W. C. Whitney's horse De Lacy, in a race during the September meeting at Newmarket, made his presence here all the more interesting. But though he was plied with questions, Lester was very conservative in his remarks, being careful not to say anything derogatory to the English racing authorities, though implying at all times that in his own belief he had been rather severely dealt with.

"I do not wish to say too much," said the jockey, "for it is a delicate matter. I have no plans for the future until I have consulted with W. C. Whitney, my employer, and Trainer Huggins. After that, however, I may be able to state whether I shall apply to the English Jockey Club for another license that will permit me to ride over there next year.

"In regard to the race which caused the trouble, I feel at liberty to explain a few things. In the first place there were four horses in the race, Richard Croker's filly Minnie Dee being second choice in the betting and my horse, De Lacy being third choice. Minnie Dee was ridden by my brother Johnny. As I got the best of the start, I went on and made the running with De Lacy. The horse has a habit of 'boring out' and he swung wide coming into the stretch, which is a half mile long. As he did so, Minnie Dee had a chance to slip through on the rail and when we got straightened out Mr. Croker's filly was at De Lacy's quarters. Then De Lacy began to stop. He was in good trim and had shown fine speed for six furlongs but was short, in my estimation. Minnie Dee gradually overhauled him so that fifty yards from the wire I went to the whip and used it so vigorously that the horse bore the marks for several days afterward. As it was Minnie Dee beat De Lacy by six inches. When my horse swung wide it was clear to me that if I pulled over I would have fouled Minnie Dee, which would have lost me the race.

"The stewards of the meeting called me up and informed me that as I had not tried to win they intended to report my case to the stewards of the Jockey Club. They would not allow me to say anything. Accordingly I was called before the Jockey Club officials and was there fifteen minutes. Lord Marcus Beresford made the charges against me and, though he admitted that De Lacy had swerved, he wound up by declaring that in his opinion I did not try to win. Trainers Huggins and Wishard testified that they saw nothing wrong with my ride, but that was of no avail, for the stewards took away my license and warned me off Newmarket Heath, which of course meant that I was not only debarred from riding again in England, but also in France and America.

"Shortly after that Johnny rode this same De Lacy and was called up and reprimanded because the horse 'bored out' as he did with me. De Lacy ran in several other events later, but could not win. The treatment I received in England was odd at times. Even when I won a race there were always persons who said, 'You nearly got beaten,' or 'You were lucky not to be shut in,' while there were others who were only too glad to give me credit. There's one thing sure, and that is I could not have pulled so many horses as they say I did and still head the list of winning jockeys. As I could not ride lower than 120 pounds, it was impossible for me to take as many mounts as other jockeys, but my winning average ought to show that I did my best.

"Volodyovski, Mr. Whitney's colt, which I rode to victory in the Derby, is a good racehorse, but I think that Mr. Whitney's American-bred colt Kilmarnock is just as good, if not better. In the St. Leger I rode Volodyovski again and was fouled. A man hanging over the rail along the stretch hit another horse with his umbrella and made him bump into my mount. I went before the stewards with a protest, but they dismissed it, saying that another horse, not Volodyovski, had been interfered with.

"While Lester was talking Johnny listened attentively and later said:

"When we were coming down the stretch I believed that Minnie Dee was surely beaten. Suddenly, however, De Lacy began to stop and I came on and won. The stewards established no motive for wrongdoing.

"What evidence the steward had," continued Lester, "they did not tell me."

"Johnny Reiff will ride in France next year. He has signed a contract with M. Caillanot, who won the Grand Prix last season. Johnny, with Kilmarnock, captured one of the richest stake events in France this year. He has been riding at about 95 pounds. The boys confirmed

Winner—B. h. by Himyar—Grace Lee.
Went to post at 2:10. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won handily; second easily. Hiliee, all but left, gradually made up ground, being compelled to race on the outside on both turns and had his field decisively beaten a furlong out. Maresa was cleverly handled and sustained a superior flight of speed throughout. David S., evidently a fast colt, tired at the end. Our Lizzie broke slowly, was shut off on the backstretch and stumbled on the turn, but finished very fast and might have been second with a capable rider up. Captain Gaines found the journey too short and should improve. He looks good.
Scratched—29758 Alfred C. 117; 29758 Rinaldo II., 114; 29759 Mission, 114; 29751 Modder, 109. Hiliee, show, 1 to 4. Maresa, show, even. David S., show, 8 to 5. Captain Gaines, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Goldfinch—Queen Bees.
Went to post at 2:29. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Old England, evidently a coming crackerjack and a grand looker, was big and high, but quickly raced into a lead from a good start and showed remarkable speed and gameness in a driving finish. He was undoubtedly best. San Nicholas received a bad start and closed a big gap. He appeared like winning in the last sixteenth, but hung right at the end. He has been phenomenally tried. El Chihuahua broke running, but is a grand looking counterfeiter. He had all the best of the luck but quit badly. Autumn Time ran a promising race and will be heard from. Montana Peeress closed a big gap. Bassenzo showed speed, but failed in the stretch.
Scratched—29692 Budd Wade, 115.
Old England, show, 4 to 5. San Nicholas, show, 1 to 2. El Chihuahua, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. m. by Morello—Lizzie Dunbar.
Went to post at 3:03. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lizella under a masterly ride was waited with, with a lot in reserve and when called on in the stretch turn moved to the front with a wonderful burst of speed and is of a superior class over distance. Horton was poorly handled and next to the rail to the stretch where he was impeded and compelled to finish on the outside where he came fast and gamely. Herculean, under a choking pull early, made a fast and apparently winning move into the lead on the far turn, but it probably cost him second place, as he was a good horse today. Artilla ran honestly, but was probably a trifle outclassed. Obia was under mild pressure almost from the start and never appeared to have a chance, although she was prominent until the real racing commenced. Galanthus made the pace on sufferance.

Overweights—Artilla, 2 pounds.

Lizella, show, 7 to 10. Horton, show, 1 to 2. Herculean, show, 3 to 5. Obia, show, out.

Winner—B. f. by St. Andrew—Fannie Louise.
Went to post at 3:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Andrissa is evidently at her best and was perfectly handled. She came out of close quarters at the end of six furlongs, after some interference and responded remarkably well to a whipping finish through the entire stretch, passing Varro only in the last hundred yards. The latter showed brilliant speed and stamina and is in great form. Rosormonde finished fast on the outside. Autolight was at a great disadvantage in the big field, being crowded on the first turn and unable to get through on the stretch turn except on the rail where he was repeatedly pulled up by reason of a horse stopping in front of him. He would probably have won with clear sailing. Beau Ormonde went well throughout. El Rio Shannon showed surprising improvement. Doublet is not a stayer. Bernota and Edna Brown were outclassed.

Western Turf Most Successful Handicapper.

I AM NOW READY to wire patrons winners on the New Orleans races. When you realize that you can't become a winner by trying to obtain the winners with dope books, owing to lack of inside information to the condition of horses, and also to the many changes of track condition which prevail here, then don't fail to get my wire on those I consider safe betting propositions of good odds. RATES $2.00 EACH, or for those who desire to know the condition of the horses I will mail them each day morning trials of the horses $5.00 WEEKLY. Letter of same reaching patrons in due time for them to take the advantage of those that are being prepared to win their races.

The following names of horse are good and ready to win and you should not fail to have me wire you when they are intended to go; the goods. A trial will convince you: Lord Quex, Lord Roberts (I wired him when he won all over the country), Homage, Frank M., Sam Lazarus, Churchill, Barney Hall, The Hoydon, Ed Gartland II., Sprille, St. Cuthbert, Malay, Moncs, Graciosa, Fleuron, Henry Burt, Alex, Eva Kice, H. 4. Tobacco, Dalkeith, Alard, Kentucky, Sir Florian, Lamp of Lee, W. B. Gates, Little Tim, Monte Himyar, Heigh Ho, Tayon, Summer, Queen Escher, Lennep, Fourleaf C., Aberdale, April, Pointz, and many others that will be uncovered soon. I am next to a Texas one that will be out this week that would not do to mention above.

Winner--B. c. by Candlemas--Sweet Home.
Went to post at 3:59. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Homestead, under a finished ride, was waited with well in hand to the stretch where he went to the front with great ease, although swerving badly over to the rail. He is a big, awkward colt and will suffer in big fields. Josie G. ran a fast and game race and is an extra good filly. The Giver was badly interfered with and crossed by the winner in the stretch. Water Scratch, carried out on the stretch turn, went well throughout. Royalty was prominent to the stretch. Rubus displayed a fine turn of speed to the stretch where he was bumped and crossed by Homestead.
Overweights--Rubus, 2 pounds.
Homestead, show, 1 to 3. Josie G., show, 7 to 10. The Giver, show, 1 to 2.

Winner--Ch. g. by Red Iron--Lilly Wright.
Went to post at 4:29. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Diomed was crazy at the post and was nearly left. He showed an amazing turn of speed, raced on the outside throughout, drew away easily in the stretch and was much the best. Commonwealth's Attorney ran sluggishly throughout, but finished strongly under bad handling. He is a reter of moderate caliber or else runs unkindly for Mathews. Lost Girl went well for seven furlongs, but shows quitting tendencies. Bagdad is under-sized and failed under his weight. Expedient was badly handled and had a stormy journey. Rose of Hilo and Young Morello quit badly.
Diomed, show, 8 to 5. Commonwealth's Attorney, show, 7 to 10. Lost Girl, show, 7 to 5.

Winner--B. c. by Autocrat--Von Hera.
Went to post at 2:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving and all out; second easily. Automaton and Small Jack fought it out all through the last quarter, Automaton holding on gamely but the latter came again at the end after coming wide at the stretch turn and was wearing him down. It was a weak finish on Echo Dale which ran well to the stretch. Arak closed a big gap but he was not persevered with in the last furlong.
Scratched--29682 Alard, 103; 29754 Cadet, 95; 29754 Ernest Farham, 93.

Winner--B. g. by George Kinney--Princess.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Little Jack Hornor ran a good race and hung on well, but he was staggering in the last furlong and had all he could do to stall off Frank Kenney and Fake. Frank Kenney made a strong stretch run. Fake finished strongly and would have won in a few more strides. St. Cutbert sprang all over the track and did not like the going. Tom Collins and Queen Eser were used up in chasing the winner.
Scratched--(29743) Fleuron, 107; 28872 Georgie, 102; 28941 Wiedemann, 102; (29295) Rival Daré, 102; (29073) Blueblaze, 100.

Jerry Hunt saved ground at the stretch turn, but was anchored in the worst of the going in the last eighth. Cathedral and Beigh Ho showed speed, but both tired and quit.

Winner--Ch. c. by Lamplighter--Little Indian.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Little Scout and Kaloma ran away from the others in the stretch and in a fierce struggle were staggering at the end and swerved over to the inside rail. O'Hagen tailed off in the run home. He seemed like a winner at the stretch turn. There was a lot of crowding and bumping back of the first three and on account of the big field and bad track it was hardly a true run race.

Winner--B. f. by Sir Dixon--Saraband.
Went to post at 4:16. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Saragamp was best in the going and drew away without much of an effort in the last furlong. Shut Up did his best throughout and was ridden out to the limit to stall off Janowood. The latter closed a big gap and would have been second in another stride. Albert Lee tired early. Ida Penzance did her best, but the going was unfavorable to her.

THE LESTER REIFF CASE.

the report that Enoch Wishard, Mr. Croker's former trainer, will train John A. Drake's horses here next season. Lester intends to see Mr. Whitney in a day or two, and then, with his brother, will go to California to spend the winter. Lester's case differs from that of Tod Sloan in that the latter was not formally ruled off, but was notified that it was best for him not to apply to the English Jockey Club for another license. Sloan, therefore, was able to ride last winter in California.

"Lester Reiff was born in Emporium, Kan., and was brought east in 1891 by John J. McCafferty. He made his bow as a jockey in the east at Monmouth Park, where he first came into prominence by riding and winning with the mare Queenie Trowbridge at odds ranging from 100 to 150 to 1, which was a great 'killing.' Later when McCafferty formed a partnership with Enoch Wishard, Reiff continued with the firm and rode with marked success. Wishard and McCafferty dissolved and Reiff, then out of his apprenticeship, went to England with Wishard, who had formed a partnership with Duke, the lumber man. The boy had remarkable success there and last year headed the list of winning jockeys, while this year he had the best percentage. In the fall of 1900 Lester and Johnny signed to ride during the past season for Lord William Beresford, then racing partner of the late Pierre Lorillard. Though Beresford died, John Huggins continued to train and then W. C. Whitney leased the training grounds from Lady Beresford, as well as accepting the racing engagements of the Reiffs. Lester was recognized as the stable jockey and therefore enjoyed the right to ride the pick of the stable. He is about twenty-six years old and not married, though it is said that he will take a bride this winter."
